Position Title: Sailing Instructor

Reports to: Waterfront Director, Camp Director

Minimum age: 18

Length of Employment and Scheduling Details:
Seasonal, 40 hours per week from late June - mid-August. Staff must be available for ALL dates including week long pre camp staff training. Some pre and post camp work may be available.

Position Purpose: Camp offers land and sea based programs on New Haven's unique coastline, based out of the Sound School and the Long Wharf Nature Preserve. The goal is to provide a dynamic and fun educational experience for 80 children each week. Activities pique an interest in coastal ecosystems, marine biology, inspire children to be stewards of their environment, provide a fun and safe summer experience and offer sailing instruction for older campers. Camp operates from late June to mid-August, Monday-Friday. Staff ensure the safe operation, instruction, and communication of camp activities in accordance with the camp mission, policies and procedures.

Length of Employment and Scheduling Details: Seasonal, 40 hours per week from late June - mid-August. Staff must be available for ALL dates including week long pre camp staff training.

Compensation: $15 to $18 per hour, depending on experience.

Sailing Instructors work as a team under the supervision of the Waterfront Director and Camp Director to ensure the safe instruction of the sailing program. Instructors will be responsible for working with and instructing groups of campers ages 9-14 on basic boat safety, how to sail and skipper a small sailboat, detailed boat handling and maneuvers, tie knots, and adventure on the protected waters of the New Haven Harbor. Campers sail on Fun Boats, Picos, and 420's while Instructors follow and direct from motor boats. Instructors must feel confident directing and managing a group of sailors from a motor boat, towing sail boats in emergency situations, and be able to focus their attention on multiple sailors at once. Instructors will be responsible for following and enforcing all safety procedures on the waterfront and maintaining the fleet of boats. They will serve as an appropriate role model to all campers, staff, and others, promoting principles and practices of clean and effective communication, mutual support, cooperation, and fair-play.
